officials say the DP is the best qualification for developing students' non-academic skills and preparing them for further education and careers.⁵

Encouraging independent inquiry

Developing workplace skills

Nurturing an open mind

Developing self-management skills

Developing global awareness and connectivity

DP alumni report the IB has profound, long-lasting effects on students' lives. It helps them develop critical thinking, analytical and writing skills and a broader world view. In addition, they point out that they earned advanced credits for university.⁶

International-mindedness means having the opportunity to have doors opened in other countries and widely renowned universities.⁷

(DP student, p.38).

A recent study among DP schools in Australia, China and India found that international-mindedness can be categorized as a tool for individual gain, an orientation towards shared understanding and a way to push boundaries for change.
